

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 5.—Orla E. Harrison, who has just been appointed an assistant attorney general of the United States and assigned to duty with Wade H. Ellis in connection with the federal prosecution of illegal combinations, is at present special counsel in the office of the attorney general of Ohio, and engaged in the same line of work. He was appointed to this work by Mr. Ellis when he was the attorney general of Ohio, and has been retained in the same work by the present attorney general, U. G. Denman. He is but thirty-seven years old, though he served four years in the Ohio senate before taking up the work in the attorney general's office. His home is in Greenville, and when he was elected to the senate his district was overwhelmingly democratic. He is a native of Darke county, and after graduating at the National Normal School at Lebanon, Ohio, he engaged in teaching for five years. Then he took up the study of law with Judge J. L. Alfred of Greenville, and upon admission to the bar was admitted to membership in the legal firm of Alfred, Treadwell & Harrison. Mr. Harrison is married and has two children. Mr. Ellis will also take with him to Washington for service in his department W. F. Sheelan, an assistant attorney, and Miss Alice Fulton, a stenographer. Both are from Cincinnati, and were employed in the office of the attorney general here under Mr. Ellis.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
CHICAGO, Ill., April 5.—Mrs. Emma E. Kershaw, a woman suffragist of means, has exemplified new ideas of equal rights by permitting herself to be arrested for debt, and declaring her intention of remaining in jail "until she rots" before settling the claim against her. She rests contentedly behind the bars today, while her husband enjoyed the comforts of his residence, at 3099 Michigan avenue, and explained to visitors that he fully approved the course adopted by his wife. His original intention was to employ a lawyer and procure her release on habeas corpus proceedings. She put her foot down hard on the proposition and said her plans "must not" be interfered with. Her sway in the household may be judged from the fact that she is president of a painting and interior decorating company, while her husband is the manager.

Tenant Makes Trouble.
Mrs. Belle McClelland, wife of William H. McClelland, manager of a dairy company, residing at 6920 Champlain avenue, is responsible for Mrs. Kershaw's plight and is perfectly willing to pay the prisoner's board at $3.50 per week for six months in order to be properly avenged for a disagreement that occurred in an apartment building at 6734 St. Lawrence avenue in November of 1906. The Kershaws owned the building and occupied the first flat. The McClellands rented the second flat. It was on one of those chilly November mornings when McClelland rushed down stairs and remonstrated with Kershaw for not having the steam on at 5 o'clock in the morning. Kershaw promised to attend to the matter, it is said. The two men apparently forgot their differences.

Damages for Injuries.
Two weeks later Mrs. McClelland, saying something about hot water supply, summoned Mrs. Kershaw to the hall. As a result of developments, Mrs. McClelland brought a damage suit seeking to recover $10,000 for lost heat and injuries suffered from "some blunt instrument."

The jury awarded her $135. The court costs were $13.50, making the total debt $265.20. From then on the McClellands have been trying to collect their judgment, while the Kershaws resisted. The latter pair have transferred title to their flat building.

On Saturday the McClellands decided to try to force payment by having Mrs. Kershaw arrested on a body warrant. Mrs. Kershaw, however, instead of paying, accompanied the deputy sheriff to jail.

BURIAL OF CERVERA.

Spanish Newspapers Reprint Praise Given by Americans.
MADRID, April 5.—Vice Admiral Cervera, who died Saturday, was buried yesterday afternoon. The body was placed in a simple black coffin and borne on the shoulders of soldiers and bluejackets to the grave, where a salute of twenty-one volleys was fired. In accordance with the admiral's request, there were no flowers. The newspapers, in commenting on the death of Admiral Cervera, recall the warm praise bestowed upon him by the Americans after Santiago.

Seat is large and roomy and covered with fine grade leatherette; hood of same material in Brewster green. Back of go-cart reclines, making it desirable for small children. The go-carts are strongly made, and are really wonderful values at price quoted tomorrow only—$3.98—Fourth Floor.

Tailored suits for $18.00

Worth up to $35—and all latest styles
It is difficult to convey a correct impression of the high-class tailoring put into these suits by mere words. They are nearer the perfection in cut and finish than any we have ever had to offer in a special sale at this price.

Many of these suits are finished with collar and cuffs of satin or heavy corded silk, in black, with a touch of Persian silk trimming. The buttons are some of them of the self-material, combined with black satin. Others are finished with buttons of smoked pearl.

A new fad in New York
"bronze" and suede leather bags to match the new shoes

This new fad is taking New York city by storm, since bronze kid and suede leather are so popular for spring footwear, and we are the first to introduce this new line of handbags in these wanted leathers to Washington's fashion leaders. BRONZE BAGS AT $1.49, $1.98, $2.98 and $3.98. Those at $1.49 are 8-inch frame bags, deep-cut pocket, cloth lined, and finished with gilt trimmings. Those at $1.98 are in a novelty shape with handle on top. Those at $2.98 have bags made of genuine morocco leather, also a bronze patent leather. At $3.98, a larger sized bag, also of the genuine morocco. Suede bags at 98c and $1.49. The bags at 98c are plain 8-inch bags, cloth lined, fitted with purse, and in all colors. Also at this price we have a suede "Indian" bag, trimmed with cut fringe and ornamented with beads. The $1.49 bags are in fancy shapes, and a little better quality of suede than those at 98c. First Floor—Leather Goods.

Hand-painted belts, with engraved monogram white metal buckle, 50c

HERE THEY ARE, just in time for Easter wear. They are in black suede and tan suede leathers. The leading style—ankle strap pumps. In all sizes and widths. This announcement will create great excitement. We know, for we are what women are demanding now for footwear, and a $4.00 low price at $3.45 is a bargain, indeed. Second Floor—Shoes. The belts are of white moire ribbon, painted in violets, pinks, roses, forget-me-nots and other floral designs. The buckles are of a fine quality of white metal, and alone should sell for 50c each. We will engrave these buckles with your three-letter monogram entirely free of charge. This arrangement gives you the hand-painted belt, the white metal engraved buckle and the whole, which is worth almost double what we ask, all for 50c. Leather Goods—First Floor.

Mary Garden Neapolitan hat, (untrimmed) $8.50 & $10.50

This is the very latest and most stunning shape brought out this season. A very large hat, with a round or square crown, high crown and very large brim, wider in front and back than on the sides. The brim droops all around, but the droop in the back is decidedly more pronounced than in the front, coming far down over the hair in the back.

AT $10.50 we have these in black and gray, made of the real fiber braid, extremely soft and pliant. AT $8.50 a slightly heavier and slightly stiffer quality of neapolitan braid. CHIP HATS in sailor shapes, with black straw facings and white tops; also plain white chip shapes; at $5.95. And others, according to quality, from $2.50 up. MILAN BRAIDS with black brims and corn-color crowns $6.50. Plain Corn-color Milane at $7.50. Others, according to quality, from $2.50 up. LEIGHORNS—So many kinds, so many shapes and so many different grades that no woman can fail to be suited. Practically all shapes at each price. Priced, according to quality of braid, at $3.95, $7.50, $8.50 and $10.50. We've everything in the way of fruits and flower trimmings for these hats.

The greatest assortment of untrimmed hat shapes in the city of Washington $1.75 up to $2.50

The assortment is so vast, the variety so great, that it is next to impossible to give details. But even as great as it is, at the rate we have been selling these shapes you will be wise to select yours tomorrow, or the shape you like best may be gone. There are Milans, Hair or Neapolitan Hats, Chips, Tuscanes, Leighorns, rough braids and many other kinds, and such a varied lot of shapes. We have room for but a brief mention of a few of the leading shapes in a few lines as follows: HORSEHAIR OR NEAPOLITAN HATS—We mention first the moderate price lines at $1.75 and $2.50, copies of $10 and $12 hats. AT $1.75 are the small turban shapes; large round-crown, mushroom-brim hats; low-crown, mushroom-brim hats; large round-crown, flare-brim hats and many, many others. AT $2.50—Large picture hats, round-crown and drooping-brim mushroom effect; hats modeled on the lines of the Charlotte Corday shape; large square-crown hats, with flaring brim on one side and drooping brim on the other. Of course, this is merely a nibble at the many, many different styles in the whole lot.

We've 10,000 water color reproductions, worth 5 times as much, only 10c

We secured from a maker who was closing out all water color reproductions on hand his entire balance, and that's why the price is so ridiculously low. Many sizes and subjects. All mounted on embossed mats and very artistic looking. When these pictures are framed you'll have a really expensive-looking picture at a mere pittance of a price. Buy several tomorrow—they will make good Easter remembrances. First Floor and Fourth Floor.

NEW PARLIAMENT OF ITALY

COMPLEXION CONSERVATIVE, AS WAS LAST BODY.

Few Gains by Socialists and Republicans—Clericals Have Small Weight at Election.

Special Telegram to The Star.
ROME, April 3.—It is now possible to form a good idea of the character of the new parliament. In a word, the twenty-third Italian legislature will closely resemble its predecessor. There will again be a large ministerial majority, although the socialists and the republicans have gained a few seats, which will, in the new house, increase their small parties of twenty-six and twenty, respectively, in the last chamber. By far the most notable socialist victory has been that of Signor Bissolati in the second division of Rome, the largest, wealthiest and most aristocratic part of the Italian capital. One of the curious features of the standard of purity in the division was the fact that the coachmen and the other servants of the Quirinal, which is in the constituency, all voted compactly for the socialist against Signor Santini, who had the support of the Vatican and is a special favorite of Queen Margherita. This is the first time that a socialist has been elected for any division of Rome. It was noticeable that women canvassed for both the socialist and the republican candidates in the capital. Not a few, mostly advanced, deputies have been returned pledged to support women's rights, which for the first time have played a part in an Italian election, and will be heard of in the new chamber, as in the old, only with more persistence. The Vatican is known to have suspended the clerical vote in several constituencies. In many more clericals doubtless voted without the permission of the ecclesiastical authorities. Except, however, in a few places, like Milan, where interest in politics is keen, the conscience of the polls was small. The three divisions of Rome only 50 per cent of the registered electors voted—a proportion a little higher than in 1904. In no Roman constituency was the aid of the clericals able to secure the election of a conservative candidate; in one alone did the clerical vote give a conservative a chance of election at the second ballot. In Milan, however, the clericals were well organized and therefore successful. In several constituencies priests and members of the religious orders not only voted, but also took part in forming the committees of the different polling stations.

VERDICTS IN GAS CASES.

Formal Action Today in Proceedings Recently Heard.

Formal verdicts in favor of Washington and Georgetown Gas Light companies were rendered today by the jury in Circuit Court No. 2. Chief Justice Claiborne presiding, in the suit instituted by the District of Columbia to recover $5,000 for alleged violations of the standard of purity and candlepower required by the statute. The District will note an appeal to the Court of Appeals in order that a ruling by that court may be had on the question of whether a violation of the standard must continue throughout a day of twenty-four hours after notice of default to the gas companies. This view of the law was taken by the chief justice against the plea of the District authorities.

FOUR PERSONS INJURED IN A FIGHT AT WELLSVILLE, OHIO.

Unprovoked Attack Upon Member of Good Citizens' League Leads to Shooting.

WELLSVILLE, Ohio, April 5.—Four persons were injured in a pistol duel and general fight between members of the Good Citizens' League and men who had been drinking on a houseboat anchored in the Ohio river, sixty feet from Wellsville, but in West Virginia jurisdiction, yesterday afternoon. The injured are William Zoellers of East Liverpool, shot in the thigh. Taken to the East Liverpool Hospital. Ben Davidson of East Liverpool, shot in the neck and may die. Taken to the East Liverpool Hospital. William Renoff of Wellsville, member of the Good Citizens' League, seriously beaten. Frank Geisse of Wellsville, a former saloonkeeper, ear almost cut off. Dispute Over Jurisdiction. Although the West Virginia line comes to the Ohio side of the river, the Ohio authorities have been claiming jurisdiction over the sale of liquor close to the shore, until a decision last week by Judge W. W. Hole at Lisbon, gave undisputed right to sell liquor in boats sixty feet from the Ohio shore without interference by Ohio authorities. A boat said to have been well stocked with liquors arrived here early yesterday morning and anchored sixty feet from shore. During the day skiffs and small boats were busy plying between the shore and the boat with passengers. While the shore was lined with men. Renoff Severely Beaten. When William Renoff of the Good Citizens' League passed the place it was thought he was taking names of those around the boat and Geisse, it is said, knocked Renoff down, beating him severely. He slashed back with a knife and both were arrested. A little later Dr. Barnes, knowing nothing of the former fight, passed the same place and members of the gang stopped him. Zoellers and Davidson were said to have hurled stones at him. Dr. Barnes is said to have drawn a revolver, whereupon Zoellers and Davidson both covered him with their guns. Dr. Barnes jumped behind a telephone pole just as a bullet whizzed by his head and, returning the fire, shot Zoellers. Picking up his wounded companion's gun, Davidson is said to have opened fire with both that and his own on Barnes. Davidson got behind another telephone pole and the duel was fought with both men protected in the same way till, after several rounds had been fired, Davidson fell wounded. He was taken to a hospital, while Barnes surrendered to the police. He was released on $1,000 bail. Weston Hits the Road at Midnight. YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, April 5.—After a rest of over thirty-six hours, Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, resumed his journey to the Pacific coast at 12:35 this morning. He was in good condition and expects to reach Canton tonight. The Central High School base ball team has been organized at Lenoxing, Md.
